Team Team Team ! We wanted a strong team ethos to which Quest came to the table and delivered !

Imperial College,
August 2020

Quest were appointed to develop laboratory spaces within the newly built block E building. The brief was developed with the end users and utilizing Quests team to ensure each space was created to suit the science requirement.

The project was completed during the COVID-19 pandemic, to which the team had to adapt to new forms of communication with the client team.
